

STATEMENT ON ACCESSIBILITY, INCLUSION, EQUITY AND JUSTICE¹

The ICF Global Board of Directors approved the ICF Statement of Diversity, Inclusion, Belonging and Justice in July 2020. Staff and volunteer leaders from ICF's six family organizations subsequently cosigned the statement. This statement of principles reflects a position they invite every ICF Member, Credential-holder and accredited provider to subscribe to.

ICF Members and Credential-holders live and work in more than 140 countries and territories. ICF is a vibrant global community committed to the shared vision of making coaching an integral part of a thriving society. Their mission is to lead the global advancement of coaching. To do this, they must reflect on our blind spots and be aware of opportunities for improvement. They cannot ignore the challenges that many coaches and coaching clients face due to systemic problems in their communities.

As members of the ICF community, we ascribe to the core values of integrity, excellence, collaboration and respect. The foundation of these values is a shared commitment to diversity, inclusion, belonging and justice.

We will place diversity, inclusion, belonging and justice at the forefront of every decision we make at Lark's Song Inc. As we continue the journey toward our vision, we commit ourselves to valuing the unique talents, insights and experiences that every coach and client brings to the world.

All staff and personnel will not discriminate against any employee or participant because of race, age, religion, color, creed, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, disability, or veteran status.

All individuals are welcome to participate regardless of race, age, religion, color, creed, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, disability, or veteran status.

All employees, students, and other participants should be able to enjoy an environment free of discrimination and harassment. This includes, but is not limited to, discrimination or harassment in the areas of race, age, religion, color, creed, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, disability, or veteran status.

Our organization does not and will not tolerate conduct by any employee, student, volunteer, contractor, visitor, or vendor which unreasonably interferes with an individual's ability to learn in a welcoming environment.

Participants who wish to report discrimination are encouraged to follow the grievance policy outlined in the LSCC Program Information Guide. Lark's Song Inc will promptly investigate all claims and reports of inappropriate conduct.
